

May 2011

Details

We often hear that the “devil in is the details”, but I know that God is there too as He calls us to steward our resources and use our gifts for Him.

One of my roles is behind-the-scenes ministry administration and financial management. Wired for planning, organizing and details, I enjoy putting my business experience to good use.

Speaking of details, here are some to celebrate. So far this year, Ignite has

- Taught 4000 students bi-weekly,
- Conducted two conferences reaching 370 youth,
- Organized school assemblies reaching over 3500 more,
- Held two pastoral workshops reaching more than 100 leaders,
- Taught a 13 week foundations class to pastors and church leaders,
- Taught a 12 week discipleship class at a local church,
- And raised over half of our 2011 budget.

We are grateful for the ministry partners who are making this possible, and are praying for additional partners to help towards our year end goals.

We're still in need of $50,000 for 2011 expenses, and $25,000 to print curriculum for our 2012 FlashPoint classes. If you can help with these additional needs, please go to

Igniting Leaders

Our heart for Enrich is to build up local church leaders so they can fulfill God's calling on their lives. Training and resources are out of reach for most African pastors. Therefore, it's an honor to stand in that gap providing leadership development conferences, classes and workshops.

On May 25th, more than 100 leaders joined us for our second Enrich leadership conference of the year. We continued our Kingdom Leading series digging deep into leading by the power of the Holy Spirit.

“This conference taught me about the Holy Spirit...As a pastor coming for the first time, I find myself ignited for what the Lord has called me to. I will take this message to my congregation.” – Isaac Dladla

Building Foundations

One of the highlights at the conference was honoring the 5 graduates of our Foundations for Christian Growth class.

The course was a rigorous 13 weeks complete with attendance requirements, homework, extra books to read, and TESTS! Pastor

Abram and I also took the class so we'd be certified to teach future classes.

As we presented the certificates, each graduate shared what the class meant in their lives. They expressed joy in receiving the certificates. Heartfelt thanks for teachers, interpreters and tutors who helped them succeed. Gratitude for those who gave generously to equip them as leaders. And most importantly, praises to God for helping them make it through a challenging course – “with great sacrifices come with great rewards”.

Please pray for our graduates, for our course beginning June 30th, and for me as I prepare to teach it.

Creating Hunger

This month we also completed a 12 week discipleship class called “Foundations of Faith” at Show-Tell Bible Church. The class is similar to FCG in its foundational teachings, but is a lighter version geared towards spiritual formation within the local church.

I was so blessed by classes I took through Kensington - classes that increased my knowledge and hunger for God's Word while also introducing me to fellow Christians. Therefore, it's a blessing to provide such an opportunity to others.

“This class taught me humility and how to read scriptures. Now I understand the Word of God better and I would like to continue with another class. I am hungry to learn more about the Word of God.” – discipleship student

Please pray for these disciples – that they continue to grow in their faith and lead others to Christ.
